

THIS WEEK I LEARNED...

This week, we learned that God does not want us to be jealous of each other. He wants us to love and help one another, even when it's hard. We are each other's keepers!

MEMORY VERSE: "Am I my brother's keeper?" Genesis 4:9

QUESTIONS TO ASK:

What does the memory verse mean?

Are we supposed to be our brother's keeper?

Who else are we supposed to help?

FAMILY ACTIVITY: Sit down and talk as a family about ways you can be your brother's keeper. Extend "brother" to sister, parent, friend, neighbour. Choose one way of selflessly helping out someone else and implement it. This could be making a card for a sick friend, mowing a neighbour's lawn. Helping a sibling clean their room, etc.

Am I my brother's keeper?
