Nothing But Grace!

Everything we have and benefit from in our lives is a consequence of God's Grace. This fact is especially true of our salvation. The testimony we all share when we examine our lives is: "Nothing But Grace." We often don't realize how blessed we are until the blessing is gone. What is Grace? Grace is God extending His favor upon humanity. Have you ever thought about it? God favors us! Grace is real-time evidence of God's goodwill. Grace is God responding in kindness to a world that has offended Him. When I look around and consider what could have been God's response to wayward man, to people like you and me, I realize that I can only proclaim: "Nothing but grace."

The very stuff that life is made of is a matter of Grace. This is what is known as "common grace." These are often things we take for granted. Consider the following. The Grace of habitation: we could have been without shelter. The Grace of constitution: we could have been without health and strength. The Grace of occupation: we could have been without any skills or abilities. The Grace of cognition: we could be void of any learning and reasoning ability. The Grace of provision: we could have been without any of our needs being met. The Grace of associations: we could be in this world all alone without family or friends. All of these things are about the Grace of temporal things. None of these things last forever. However, there is another Grace!

The Grace that I speak of is the Grace of our salvation. This Grace Redeems us. It has paid in full

Your Story Has Power

The Lord has given each of us a testimony (a story) to tell at the point of our salvation. Along with that wonderful gift comes great responsibility. Our authentic story, told as only we can tell it, has power. Whether you are newly saved or have been saved for a long time, we all have a story. Nobody knows my story like I do. I think back to when we were kids and something happened to me and one of my siblings tried to tell my mother what had occurred, she stopped them and said "ok, now let her tell it." She wanted to hear it from me. That way she felt certain to get the clearest version of the story in my words. After all, we don't have to embellish our story to make it sound more exciting. There's no competition involved, if you've been redeemed God wants you to say so (Psalms 107:2, KJV).

As a young girl, I joined the drama club at middle school. Lord only knows why because I was painfully shy. But once I began to try out for different parts and actually got a part and practiced and performed it in front of the entire school, I became quite the little actress. At least my mom thought so (smile). Anyway, I say that to emphasize the fact that practice made all the difference in my level of fear. I became more comfortable on stage. The more you tell your story, the easier it gets. Take the time to write out your story and practice saying it in front of a mirror. May seem silly, but it works. I'm a witness (smile). Let others know How Jesus rescued you and why you decided to follow Jesus. They'll be curious as to what the impact or difference following Christ has made in your life. Your story, coupled with the Gospel of Jesus Christ can be life changing. Most people may not accept God's gift of salvation the first time they are witnessed to, but the Bible tells us one plants, one waters but the growth comes from God. God is the source, we're just the compelling witnesses planting and watering as God gives us witnessing opportunities (1 Cor 3:6-9).

Jesus knows the power of a testimony. After Jesus drove out the unclean spirits from the demon possessed man, He told him to "go home to your family and tell them everything the Lord has done for you and how merciful He has been" (Mark 5:19-20, NLT). Just listen to the simple testimony of the man born blind after Jesus healed him and gave him his sight and he was questioned by the Jewish leaders over and over, his answer "I don't know whether He is a sinner," the man replied. "But I know this; I was blind, and now I can see" (John 9:25 NLT)! The Samaritan woman Jesus spoke to at the well had quite an impact on her people. She was so excited about Jesus that she left her water jar and ran to tell those in her village she had met the Messiah and He told her everything she ever did! Many Samaritans believed in Jesus because of her testimony (John 4:29-30; 39-40, NLT). Her story had power!

Because we never know the impact our story can have on others we must trust and rely on the power, foreknowledge and wisdom of the Holy Spirit. Take the time to listen and listen with the intent and concern to hear a person express their feelings, not just with the anxious intent to get your point across. That lets the person know you genuinely care about their point of view. Witness in love and prayer, not formality. We're ambassadors for Christ, not cowboys looking to put a notch on our belts.

In the words of the apostle Paul "Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they may be saved" (Rom 10:1, KJV). Is it your prayer and heart's desire that family, friends, coworkers, neighbors, classmates and the man on the street be saved?

We all want to hear the Lord say "Well DONE my good and faithful servant." But excuse my grammar, you might not hear it if you haven't DONE anything to build the Lord's kingdom. Going to heaven is going to be the greatest event of our lives because we'll see Jesus face to face. I imagine seeing someone you've witnessed to when you arrive is going to bring a lot of joy to your heart. Keep telling your powerful story!

Writer's Ministry: Keeping the Main Thing, the Main Thing

"Finally, all of you be of one mind, having compassion for one another, love as brothers, be tender hearted, be courteous, not returning evil for evil or reviling/or reviling, but on the contrary blessing, knowing that you were called to this, that you may inherit a blessing" (1 Peter 3:8-9).

What constitutes a successful church? In our society today, some may consider a church with thousands of members a success. Others may consider a church successful if the pastor or leader is a world-renowned speaker. However, God's view of a successful church is one where its members are unified and the gospel is going forth. In Matthew 28:19-20, Jesus lays the blueprint for a successful church. "Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely, I am with you always, to the very end of the age." This is our primary mission as Christians. We must be diligent to keep our true purpose at the forefront of our minds. In his book, The Seven Basics of Belonging, 2021, Sam Rainer states, "As a church member, you must keep the main thing the main thing. The goal of every church member is to share the love of Christ with a lost world" (p.67).

In order to successfully carry out our mission, we must be unified. Attending worship services together and working on church projects together increases fellowship, but these things alone won't make us unified the way God intends. In order to be truly unified, we must seek out unity as an act of love (Rainer, 67). Ephesians 4:1-6 shows us the way:

"As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to one hope when you were called; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all."

As part of our church membership, Sam Rainer deemed unity as a sixth basic of belonging (pg. 67). This does not mean that we lose our individuality or the ability to think for ourselves. We know that a church will not make much progress in disunity. The unifying force of every church is God's Word and God's mission (pg.69). We must remain unified around the Word of God, the Great Commission, the vision, and the mission of the church. The goal of every church is to share the love of Christ with a lost world (Rainer, 67).

A unified church must have love undergirding every fabric of its being. Seeking unity itself is an act of love. Sometimes, we have to work with difficult people. Our job is not to fix them, but to pray for them. God's Word to us is to bear with one another, forgive, and show kindness and patience (Colossians 3:12-14). Love is a demonstration. It is known from the actions it prompts. It is demonstrated and seen by what a person says or does and how they do it. Words can reflect love in a powerful way or they can kill the spirit of another person. Paul admonishes us to speak the truth in love (Ephesians 4:15). Therefore, love should be the basis of all our behaviors. Keep the main thing the main thing; seek unity and show forth love. In all of your church activities, projects, meetings, and interactions with others, again keep the main thing the main thing.

Prayer:

God, we thank You for your Word to us and the great love demonstrated toward us. Help us to show a deeper love and stronger unity within our church and with one another. We thank You Lord Jesus for showing us the way to love. Amen.

Nothing But Grace! Continued from page 1

the price for the penalty of our sin. This Grace Rescues us. It snatches and delivers us from eternal damnation. You and I were doomed to die without God and suffer eternally, but God's Grace rescued us. This Grace Revitalizes us. It is Grace that gives us life in exchange for the deadness of our previous existence. This deadness made us insensitive to the things of God, but Grace brings back our sensitivity and our responsiveness to God. This Grace Restores us. It fixes the most important relationship that any man, woman, or child can have: our relationship with God. This Grace Redirects us. Because of God's Grace, you and I now have a new purpose in life. We have been created in Christ for good works. This Grace Refocuses us. We now have something to look forward to; because of Grace, we now have hope.

The amazing paradox of Grace is that it is free but costly. A great price had to be paid because a debt was made. Our sin and our rebellion toward God made us debtors, and we had nothing in our possession to clear the debt. Our works, though many, are inadequate. Our wealth, though much, is insufficient. It took something beyond the vast holdings of this earth; it took the sacrifice of the Only Begotten Son of God. He gave His life to pay our debt and grant us what we do not deserve, and that is God's Grace! Truly the hymn writer is right: "Jesus Paid it All!" Yes, I am blown away by God's Grace. I join with John Newton and declare:

Amazing Grace—how sweet the sound—that saved a wretch like me!

I once was lost but now am found, was blind, but now I see.

*'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and Grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that Grace appear the hour I first believed!*

*Thru many dangers, toils, and snares I have already come;
'tis grace hath brought me safe thus far, and Grace will lead me home.*

*The Lord has promised good to me; His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be as long as life endures.*

When we've been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun, we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we'd first begun.

Nothing But Grace!

Soli Gratia!
