Unscrambled Acrostic

An acrostic is a type of poem with a twist. Either the first letter or the last letter (sometimes another letter) in a line is used to spell out a key word or phrase. In this case, the word is ALIVE. We have provided the scrambled-up words for you in the paragraph below. After you unscramble the words (you may cross out the scrambled-up word and write the unscrambled version above it), use the words to fill in the acrostic.

On the first day of the week, very RYLAE in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the NTOSE rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the body of the DORL Jesus. While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. In their HGTRIF, the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the VLIIGN among the dead? He is not here; he has risen!"
